Exclusions

We are unable to provide insurance for the following, and we strongly recommend that you take out independent insurance to cover such eventualities: most normal household policies will accept such risks if you inform your own insurance company or broker:

THEFT:

You are not covered for items stolen in any country other than specified above.

PUBLIC LIABILITY:

You are not covered for accidents involving negligence by yourself or a carer where our equipment is not faulty. If you or your carer caused a motor accident, for example, by careless use of your scooter or wheelchair, you may be liable to pay compensation for damage or injury to third parties. Our insurance company will not carry such risks, so please do arrange your own insurance.
